

Teamwork and FLL Values
Team Number	4016	Div 2
Team Name	Running with Nano Scissors
Roles and Responsibilities-		Score (1-20)	17

- Clearly defined roles
 - Team members understand each other's roles
 - Work is distributed fairly
 - Team members will help each other
 - Team members learn time management
- Students seemed comfortable with their role on the team
Tasks were handled by the entire team

Gracious Professionalism		Score (1-20)	18
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Team members show respect for teammates - Team members imply increased awareness of school/community - Team members are vague about how this awareness translates into other aspects of their lives. - Team implies they have helped each other/other teams 	4 new students - 3 returning students shared their knowledge with new students new students accepted into an existing team.

Problem Solving & Team Dynamics & Communications		Score (1-20)	17
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A problem was identified and there is compromise evidence in the solution - Team tested various solutions to solve the problem - Cooperation is a dominant theme - Team focuses on individual tasks - Decisions made by most of team 	Decisions were made by a vote.. consider using pros and cons (or a process that requires kids to talk out good and bad)

Confidence & Enthusiasm		Score (1-20)	20
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Everyone was ready to answer at least one question - Most of the team appears excited and interested - Good eye contact with the judges. 	Students were very confident GREAT eye contact with the judges! consider handing off some questions to quieter students.

FLL Values		Score (1-20)	18
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Team shows a keen interest in subject matter, but limited use of concrete examples. - Team implies new skills acquired. - Team members suggest future aspirations. - Team talks about how FLL has made a difference. 	Good examples of FLL has helped public speaking.

		Final Score	90
Comments

Very enthusiastic team - fun to talk to!!

Judge's initials CJM _____

Refer to the rubrics in the FLL Team manual for complete descriptions of criteria. To help judges, the GOOD level is listed on this sheet.